PITTSTON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, May 3 .- Overcome by temorse, penitent John McGrall went into a bedroom at his home in Wyoming during the temporary absence of his wife at ten o'clock this merning, drew a revolver and sent a cu' et into his head just above the temple. He died within fifteen minutes. McGrail had made threats against the life of his wife and she had made up her mind to desert him, which is the only cause given for his self-destruction. He was a well known resident of Wyoming. having lived there for the past twenty

A Miss Ruane, of this city, became excited while on one of the Pittston electric cars last evening en route to Wilkes-Barre during the heavy thunder and lightning storm, and leaped from the car. One of her arms was fractured by the fall.

At the weekly meetings of the West Pitiston High School Literary society this afternoon, the following prowas rendered: Oration, Aguinaldo's Capture," John J. Kelley: recitation, Katherine Haggerty: plano solo, Muzette Hadsall: recitation, Robert R. Bevan; piano solo, Mattle C. McCabe; essay, Mary C. Kel-"Carrie Nation's Career," Benjamin Wheeler; reading, Bertha Craw-ford; "Chinese Question," Thomas J. Kelley: essay, Fay S. Kyte: "Cuban Question." William M. Sante.

The Treble Clef club, of West Pittston, is arranging to conduct a concert in Music Hall, May 30th, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian association building fund. Among the soloists who will take part are Mrs. Maxwell Chapman, of Scranton: Mrs. Clara Simpson-Brady, and Frederick Widmayer, of Scranton. J. C. Manning, of Savannah, Ga.

formerly of this city, is a patient in a New York city hospital, where he is undergoing treatment for the removal of a tumor from his side.

Without an exception, the subscription dance in Keystone hall last evening was the most fushiorable event of the season here. The decerations were claborate, and the music was furalshed by eight pieces from Oppenheim's orchestra. The participants in the cotillion numbered over 100.

John Polaskie, aged 28 years, hired a room in the Sinclair House late last right, went to bed and blew out the gas. About 5.30 this morning employes of the hotel found him almost dead. After an hour's hard work. Dr. Newth restored life.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, May 3 .- The Tunkhannock High school will hold its graduating exercises on the evening of June 7, at Piatt's opera house, and the fol-lowing will graduate: Everett Borden, Louis Robinson, Harry Ross, Fred Potter, Jessie Billings, Katie Connell, May Keithline, Mary Mitchell, Emma Hufford and Florence Hufford. A petition will be presented at the next term of court asking that a road be laid out that will connect Harrison street and Tiega, passing along the market garden of William I. Avery. There has been a private road in that locality for several years, but it has recently been closed. Miss Eva Moss is visiting her mother at Plainsville, this week. The jewelry store of L. T. Burns, on Tioga street, was broken into on Friday morning by thieves at about 3.30 c'clock. The glass front of the building was crushed in by a blow from a large stone. The noise caused by the breaking glass awakened Mr. Burns, who lives in the building, and the burglars hearing his approaching footsteps hastily decamped. The only booty they secured was about one-half dozen old watches of doubtful value.

A barn belonging to Samuel Harding at Eatonville, about two miles from this place, was consumed by fire on Friday afternoon about 2 o'clock. A horse and wagon and a quantity of hay and grain were burned. On account of the high wind prevailing at the time, Mr. Harding's residence was in great danger, and Tunkhannock was elephoned for help. Quite a number from this place went over to assist in subduing the flames.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the stockholders of o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing Direc-tors and voting upon such other matters as may come before the meeting.

L. F. BOWER, Secretary. shorts between 50 and 58. Tailing longs, fearing that their leader was about to unload dumined their lines into the pit and the market broken to 53. The leader sold nothing under 56, at least not openly, and the market reacted and closed 2c, higher at 55½c. The fact that out of 304 cars received today, but 21 graded contract had much to do in causing fresh alarm. July opened strong and enjoyed a general demand for a time, but liberal realizing caused a decline. Cash quotations were as follows:

Flour-Demand moderate: No. 3 spring wheat, 71½a73½c.; No. 2 red, 73a74½c.; No. 2 corn, 54½a55c.; No. 2 yellow, 55c.; No. 3 white, 254254c.; No. 2 rre, 55½a55c.; good feeding barley, 51a55c.; fair to choice malting, 56a50c.; No. 1 flax seed, $1.68½; No. 1 northwestern, $1.68½; prime timothy seed, $2.75; mess port, $15a15.05; lard, $8.62½a5.75; short ribe, $5a8.00; dry salted shoulders, 67aa71½c.; short clear, $5.25 as, $5.2
